PROBLEM “POINT A”

YOU KNOW THAT YOU WANT TO COACH BUSINESS OWNERS AND HELP CHANGE THEIR LIVES, BUT THE PROBLEM IS:

- 1 How will they trust your expertise?
- 2 How do you come up with the content?
- 3 How do you structure and deliver your services?
- 4 How do you turn your coaching and consulting into a service that people will want and buy?
- 5 How do you properly price it so you're giving enough value for their money?

HOW MANY OF YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED THIS:

PROCRASTINATION because you lack the clarity on HOW to structure your coaching programs and services.

OVERWHELMED with the idea of building your own coaching content or program materials.

QUESTIONING that no one will trust your expertise without the credentials to back it up.

WORRY that even if you did get coaching clients they might not get results (and that wouldn't feel good - you WANT to do a good job).

If you continue to stay stuck in these feelings, your vision of becoming an incredible, life-changing coach will never come to life, and no one will get to experience the expertise you have to offer!

You'll continue sitting on the sidelines watching everyone else take part in this multi-billion dollar online coaching industry while they experience more freedom and fulfillment through coaching - when this person should be YOU!

My question is: Why not YOU, and why not NOW?

Are you stuck on what to offer in your coaching?

Right now you know that coaching is calling you. You feel it in your bones and soul. You WANT to be mentoring and guiding others towards business transformations.

You're currently flip-flopping on what exactly to offer or don't know exactly how to package up your expertise in a way that will sell. You need a simpler way to create great paid content that you can confidently sell.

How do you create trust as a new coach?

While you have a lot to offer, you struggle to feel confident in marketing yourself without the credentials, media attention, or testimonials to back it up. The truth is - while you know you can help - convincing a prospect of that is something completely new to you!

Are you committed to being a GREAT coach who gets your clients results?

You don't want to be another guru who takes people's hard-earned money and delivers crap in return. You want to be one of the good ones. You want to be a coach who truly cares, and who is dedicated to getting your clients results. The trouble is - HOW? How do you get your clients results when coaching is new?

SERIOUSLY, I WANT YOU TO THINK ABOUT THIS...

What Is It Costing YOU To Continue To Stay As Your Own BEST KEPT SECRET
And Not Have Your Own Signature Program Out There?

TODAY MARKS AN IMPORTANT DAY

Right here on this page I'm giving you a pain-free and simple solution to STOP all the self-doubt, worry, and overwhelm, and put an end to procrastination of 'not knowing how' to get your coaching business off the ground, or letting any more fear get in the way of you stepping out into the marketplace as the amazing coach you are meant to be.

PERSON "THE BRIDGE"

Hi there - I'm Amanda Goldman-Petri ("AGP" for short).

I'm an award winning marketing and business coach, and known for helping clients generate millions of dollars online in short periods of time.

I've secretly Certified many of the top 6 and 7-figure coaches, and many are actually selling MY content that they've been licensed to rebrand and resell as their own.

After building my own successful service-based business and generating $150K in 4 months at the age of 22, I went out into the coaching world to help other business owners do the same. At the age of 25, my coaching business generated $562K in 4 months. I then went on to Certify other coaches in the content I was selling and delivering to my clients with massive success.

We've worked with coaches in over 35 countries and 6 continents, helping them become more confident in their coaching with our certifications and making their lives easier by licensing them to simply rebrand and resell our material as their own.

Having a Certification as a coach means you can Increase Your Prices, Increase Your Sales Conversions, and Make Yourself Stand Out. You instantly become seen as a more CREDIBLE expert!

POSSIBILITIES “POINT B”

Without having a blueprint to go by, you will get stuck having to spend countless hours testing your own systems, building your own content, and trial-and-erroring it on your own clients.
It will test your confidence - and delay your results!

What would it mean for you to be able to become a credible expert now, and arm yourself with material that has already been tested, helping the PEOPLE you want, demanding the PRICES you want, and making the PROFIT you want?

IMAGINE You As A Certified Marketing Planner
In 30 Days or Less...
And you no longer struggle with...

HOW TO CREATE AND MONETIZE

Get the authority and leverage you need to quickly raise your fees, so that you can afford the kind of lifestyle you want...

Complete Training On How To TEACH The Planning Method To Your Clients. Ever met someone who is fantastic at what they do... but couldn't explain it to anyone else if their lives depended on it?

That's because DOING and TEACHING are two very different things. Like I said earlier, you've gotta know how to DO the stuff before you can teach it to anyone else... but that's just one piece of the puzzle. I've logged a TON of hours teaching the strategies I use in my own business to others, so I know a thing or two about getting them to not only learn the material, but to apply it in their businesses.

By the time you finish the Certified Marketing Planner™ Training Program, you will too. That's going to get your clients MUCH higher success rates... which translates to a band of mega-loyal followers who will sing your

SALES

You know that you want to coach business owners and help change their lives, but when you hear that word - sales - you get a knot in your stomach. But if sales are scary for YOU, then imagine how it must feel for your clients.

- How can you help your clients with their sales, if you struggle with them?
- Any type of business coach is SUPPOSED to be good at sales, so how do you expect your prospects to trust you or want to buy from you if you're not?
- Do you just avoid helping them with sales? And if so, how do you structure and deliver your coaching without touching on sales?

There Is A Truckload Of "Poo" That Many Fakers Are Calling "Sales Coaches"... And You Don't Want To Be One Of Them!

What Most Sales Coaches Deliver

What YOU Want To Deliver As A Sales Coach

You see, there are plenty of coaches out there who say they can help business owners - hard working, big-dreaming people like you and me - make more sales and get more prospects to say "YES".

But what they give you... well, that's another story.

Most just teach you part of selling - like the mindset of sales or lead generation - but that's it. No "big picture" training. No comprehensive step by step. No showing you how to put all the pieces together to generate predictable, abundant streams of income.

Even worse, some of these coaches don't have any idea what they're talking about at all. They're just teaching something they've heard from another coach, without any practical sales experience...hoping you'll believe them enough to pay for their programs... and that they can disappear before you figure out they've handed you a bunch of useless fluff.

And so, after dumping $1000s (and maybe more) in training programs, workshops, and coaching sessions... you're not one inch closer to being able to keep your sales calendar full and making the kind of cash you need for the lifestyle you'd love to become accustomed to!

Let me tell you, it really burns my bagel every time I talk to a coach or business owner who's been struggling for months or years because they're stuck trying to string together bits of bad sales advice!

And, as a coach, it should bother you, too!

Why?

Because it points to a lack of integrity in the coaching world. It makes us look like a bunch of "ivory tower" crooks who don't know the first darned thing about effective sales techniques, and who are just content making stuff up and ripping off clients right and left.
